

Brad and Colleen Johansen to Host Annual Party for a Purpose

March 7, 2011 – Come join us for our annual Party for a Purpose, hosted by Brad and Colleen Johansen, benefiting OneCity, Cancer Free Kids, Neediest Kids of All, and Matthew 25 Ministries. Held each spring, Party for a Purpose is a lively, entertaining evening that brings people together for great food, drinks, live music and dancing, a raffle and a few awesome live auction items to raise funding in a casual atmosphere. The event will be held on Friday, April 8, 2011 from 7:30pm – Midnight at The Manor House in Mason, located at 7440 S. Mason- Montgomery Road. Cost is $65 per ticket ($50 per ticket when you purchase two or more) and includes unlimited food and drinks, with great entertainment provided by Soul Pocket! The first 150 people to purchase tickets will be automatically entered in a drawing to win a brand new Kindle provided by Best Buy! Visit www.onecity.org to purchase tickets, and buy them early! We are expecting to sell out and tickets may not be available at the door. This party is open to the public!

About OneCity

OneCity, a Cincinnati-based nonprofit, creates life-changing experiences for mentors and participants in areas such as education, chronic unemployment, and poverty. By developing city-wide programs and mobilizing people, OneCity provides venues for volunteers to leverage their passions, experiences and time as mentors, yielding “One New City, Two Lives at a Time”. Since 2004, OneCity has developed a dozen initiatives, engaged over 200 churches and coordinated thousands of volunteers around Cincinnati yielding significant, authentic change! To learn more or get involved, go to www.onecity.org.
