

For more information, contact:

Allyse Woods

OneCity

513-579-0555

allyse.w@onecity.org

OneCity to Host Leadership Foundations' National Training Institute in Cincinnati

September 23, 2010 – OneCity is proud to host the Leadership Foundation's Annual Training Program for Executives, Board Members, Program Directors and Staff. This year's training institute is themed "At the Core," focusing on the core competencies of effective, citywide transformation. The 2010 program will take place at the Hyatt Regency in downtown Cincinnati on October 3-6 and will focus on improving functionality and capacity building, with emphasis on mentoring in the local church and social service sectors. For more information, go to www.leadershipfoundations.org.

About Leadership Foundations

Leadership Foundations is an international network of faith-based organizations that brings together leaders from local churches, social service agencies, and other organizations to tackle the most challenging problems facing our cities. Working in collaboration, issues are addressed and solutions implemented for greater impact than when working independently. To learn more go to www.leadershipfoundations.org.

About OneCity

OneCity is a nonprofit organization based in Cincinnati operating from the value that growth and authentic change results from working together toward a common goal. Through the development of local collaboratives across Cincinnati, OneCity strives to make significant progress against issues such as education, poverty, chronic unemployment and transportation across multiple sectors. OneCity operates from two platforms: 1) Program Development – Implementing best-practice strategies and solutions utilizing local and national research and expertise; and 2) People-Placement/Development - creating opportunities for volunteers to leverage their passions, experiences and time availability. Since 2004, OneCity has developed a dozen initiatives, engaged almost 200 churches and coordinated thousands of volunteers around Cincinnati to facilitate significant citywide impact! To learn more or get involved go to www.onecity.org.